Bilibo

Bilibo is a new kind of toy:

The elementary shells leave room for the child's imagination. Instead of imposing a specific play pattern, Bilibo is open for a wide range of interpretations and encourages the children to invent their own games, to play and have fun in an active and creative way. Indoors and outdoors, in the sand-pit, in the water or even in the snow... Bilibo is full of surprises.

Sweet ride

The Wishbone bike evolves with a child's different stages of development. It starts at age 1 as a trike, converts to a running bike as the child grows, and by four to five years old, the 'wishbone' frame is flipped, making the Wishbone Bike one of the largest running bikes on the market.

With its environmentally sustainable design, and innovative 3-bikes-in-1 feature, the Wishbone bike designed in New Zealand really is the ultimate pre-bike.

buying for baby purchasing your layette

What to look for when buying for your baby's layette:

Classic, essential garments are the building blocks for baby's layette

Look for styles and colours that will complement other garments

Cotton, merino and bamboo are the perfect fibres for babies

Look for fabrics that have stretch, a soft silky feeling to them and are non-irritating

Garments should be machine washable and able to be machine dried if necessary

Envelope necks, wrap styles and dome bottoms make dressing easy and fuss free

Styles that are generous in length will give your baby maximum wear of each garment

Buy garments that can be easily layered

Choose quality over quantity

made for baby

After the birth of her son Sam, Rebecca McLeod hunted for a range of skincare products that gave her the reassurance that it had thought about her child's wellbeing when it produced its shampoo, wash, cream, lotion or oil.

Unable to find anything in New Zealand that met her needs, Rebecca used her background as working with a toxicologist on the impact of chemicals on the skin to create a range of natural skin care products with New Zealand mothers and children in mind.

And so the made4baby range of skincare products was born. The range was built on four key points with the modern New Zealand family in mind - functional, fun, affordable, and relevant.

The range is made in New Zealand from natural ingredients, gentle enough for sensitive skin, and specifically contains:

- NO harsh detergents - common in baby washes to create lather and foam
- NO petrochemicals - like mineral oils or petroleum jelly
- NO artificial fragrances - which can be a combination of hundreds of ingredients
- NO parabens - controversial chemicals used widely in the cosmetic industry

By stripping out these ingredients, made4baby have created mild, gentle formulations that are kind on sensitive skin, and their fragrance free range has received fantastic feedback from parents with children with eczema.

The made4baby range is natural, easy to use and looks fantastic! The range includes hair and body wash, body barrier creme, all over body lotion, sleep tight massage oil and bubble bath.

an interview with Frances from Breastmates
www.breastmates.co.nz

Frances, what is so special about the HOTmilk range?

HOTmilk lingerie is simply divine. Designed to make mums and mums to be feel beautiful and sexy, there are three new styles being added to the already stunning range, which will cater for sizes 8A to 20G. With eight styles in the current range, there's guaranteed to be a style to suit everyone!

How do I make sure I buy the right size online?

Not every mother has the opportunity to go to a lingerie shop, especially with kids in tow, so Breastmates have developed a sizing guide, sizing chart, and tutorial video to show you how to measure yourself at home and get the right size. Customers are also welcome to contact me to help get the right size for them.

Which is your favourite from the new HOTmilk range?

It has to be Her Desire was Dangerous. This decadent and desirable Hot Milk maternity bra is the essential sexy garment for the new mother's wardrobe of seduction! The Hot Milk nursing bra has a 3/4 cut cup which gives a flattering fit. A jet black sheer mesh overlays an opulent red microfibre to create a stunning effect. Intricate rouch detailing on the bra cup is matched with a soft stretch black lace, encrusted with diamantes to add true luxury. This is a decadently soft set, which is lined in cotton for added comfort. Power elastane around the back band of the bra ensure great support. One handed nursing clasps ensure ease of use when you need to feed baby. This stunning Hot Milk bra is matched with a sexy low rise G-string which has a soft stretch satin back and is embellished with the same intricate detailing as the bra. The French Knickers are also low rise, and have rouching at the back for additional shape and sensuality. The set makes a great gift!

Knickers for Africa

Breastmates, in conjunction with HOTmilk, is proud to be involved with the Knickers for Africa collection drive. They are collecting secondhand bras to send to women and girls in villages in Zimbabwe.

This is a great way to do something as simple as cleaning out your drawers, but it can make a big difference to a women's life.

The bras will be distributed to school girls and women, in villages around Harare in Zimbabwe many of whom do not own any underwear or may only have one pair. Something as simple as underwear gives women prestige, shows that they have money, and means men are less likely to assault them.
